The Windsor bar is again open under the management of the old time saloon man, Lee Caldwell. He would be pleased to have his friends call and see him.

Chas. Comegys was in from his Wagonite ranch the first of the week having been called over on account of the sudden death of his father. Chas. has returned home to look after his stock.

Judge Miller was a passenger in on Thursday's Canyon stage, returning from Vale where he has been attending court. Judge stated the term was short and no particular cases of local interest were tried.

Two cases of scarlet fever have just developed here, one in the family of Clarence Luckey and the other in Chas. Brittingham's. Both residence are in the same block and are under quarantine. It is rumored that several have been exposed.

At a meeting of the directors of the First National Bank of Burns Thursday evening, J. L. Gault was elected a director and cashier and N. U. Carpenter was elected vice president. No other changes were made in the officers. Mr. Gault comes from Montana where he held a like position and is an experienced bank man. He is a very pleasant gentleman and one who will at once command the good will and friendship of the many patrons of the local bank. He is well pleased with Harney county and believes it has a bright future. Mr. Gault and wife and little son now occupy the Carpenter residence.

Leon M. Brown, Cashier of the Harney County Bank has been appointed resident agent of the National Surety Company of New York. This company has just delivered the largest policy ever written—in weight 50 pounds—securing the fidelity of 22,000 employees. If you want a bond call on him.

N. U. Carpenter and family will leave for Baker City next Monday where they will make their home. Mr. Carpenter has associated himself with the Citizens Bank of that city and will immediately assume the duties of cashier of that establishment. During his residence here he gained the confidence of the business men of Harney county and made the First National Bank of this city one of the strongest institutions in eastern Oregon and he is considered one of the safest and most conservative banking men in the state. While we are sorry to see him depart he still retains a good block of stock in the local concern and will have the best interests of the Harney county at heart. We will have a friend in court at Baker at least and his many warm friends hope he will prosper.

Mrs. N. Comegys and children desire to take this method of expressing their sincere gratitude to the many friends who extended assistance and sympathy during their dark hours of bereavement.

J. F. Mahon has been in the city the past few days arranging a suitable place in which to house some Jacks and a stallion which he wishes to sell. Mr. Mahon states the recent storm has caused him some loss in stock, but to what extent he is unable to say at this time.

John Budelman has just received by the Canyon stage a handsome specimen of the celebrated OK-OK, a rare bird of the Fiji Islands. He has it on exhibit at the store where he is quite an attraction. Those not acquainted with this wonderful bird should make it a point to visit the store.

Carroll Cecil is home from a visit to his family in Portland and other points. During his absence he visited W. H. Hogan at Albany and reports Bill and wife well and happy. From a poem from the versatile pen of Bus Wyatt it seems Bill has the habit of going to the race track occasionally.

In conversation with Geo. Craddock over the phone the other day he informed The Times-Herald that things looked rather blue in Silvis, but they hoped for a change in weather conditions that would afford relief for the stockmen. The snow has been rapidly disappearing since and will likely go more rapidly in the next few days.

C. C. Hankins was down from Silvis a few days this week. He informs us that the recent severe storm will cause some loss of stock in that section, as hay is scarce and stock cannot do much on the range at this time. He did not think the loss would be heavy if the snow did not linger.

POLITICAL ANNOUNCEMENTS

I hereby announce myself as a candidate for commissioner of Harney county, subject to the decision of the democratic voters at the primaries to be held April 20, 1906. J. R. JENKINS.

I submit my name as a candidate for county commissioner on the Democratic ticket and pledge myself if elected to fill the office to the best of my ability. My long residence in Harney County has given me an intimate knowledge of the needs of its growing population and the developing resources and I will at all times strive to act with the idea in view of subordinating personal interests to public good. As a member of the county court I would try to make my position known on all subjects before that by my recorded action at all times. JAMES DAVIS.

I hereby announce myself a candidate for the nomination for the office of county judge of Harney County, Oregon; subject to the decision of the republican voters at the primary election to be held on the 30th day of April 1906.

Should I receive such nomination I promise, to make a vigorous, and honorable campaign and

If elected will give the office my very best attention at all times and will always favor managing the affairs of the county upon purely business principles at all times hewing to the line letting the chips fall where they may.

Without casting any reflections on others, I believe it in the interest of economy and good roads to divide the county into smaller road districts and will if elected favor a division of road district Number 1 so as to include Drewsey and Pine Creek precincts in one road district.

I am in favor of good roads safe bridges and in contracting wherever possible all work and construction thereon, all contracts to be let to the lowest bidder offering a good and sufficient bond; but believing we have competent builders in this county would favor home bidders where possible. Geo. FAY.

I hereby announce myself a candidate for commissioner of Harney county, subject to the decision of the democratic voters at the primaries to be held April 20, 1906. L. N. STALLARD.

I hereby announce myself a candidate for the office of County Judge of Harney County, Ore., subject to the choice of the voters at the democratic primary—April 20, 1906.

If elected I will endeavor to discharge the duties of the office impartially, aiming to give the whole people a "square deal". Conducting myself as a servant of the people and not a tool of any faction. I will give constant attention to the duties of the office; being ever ready to transact the daily routine of business and will not be "out of town" when business of such nature is to be transacted before me. I will conduct the business of this office as economically as may be consistent with the efficient and practical administration of County affairs, looking always to the welfare and best interests of the people. Geo. D. HARTY.

I hereby announce myself a candidate for judge of Harney county subject to the decision of the democratic voters at the primaries to be held April 20, 1906. J. P. RECTOR.

I hereby announce myself a candidate for clerk of Harney county, subject to the decision of the republican voters at the primaries to be held April 20, 1906. C. W. DRINKWATER.

I hereby announce myself a candidate for judge of Harney county, subject to the decision of the republican voters at the primaries to be held April 20, 1906. GRANT THOMPSON.

I hereby announce myself a candidate for sheriff of Harney county, subject to the decision of the republican voters at the primaries to be held April 20, 1906. WALTER GRAY.

I hereby announce myself a candidate for treasurer of Harney county, subject to the decision of the republican voters at the primaries to be held April 20, 1906. W. E. HUSTON.

I hereby announce myself a candidate for joint representative of Harney and Malheur counties, subject to the decision of the republican voters at the primaries to be held April 20, 1906. FRANK C. BROWN.

I hereby announce myself a candidate for sheriff of Harney county, subject to the decision of the democratic voters at the primaries to be held April 20, 1906. A. K. RICHARDSON.

I hereby announce myself a candidate for sheriff of Harney county, subject to the decision of the republican voters at the primaries to be held April 20, 1906. M. H. BRENTON.

I hereby announce myself a candidate for sheriff of Harney county, subject to the decision of the republican voters at the primaries to be held April 20, 1906. W. Y. KING.

I hereby announce myself a candidate for commissioner of Harney county, subject to the decision of the republican voters at the primaries to be held April 20, 1906. A. I. JOHNSON.
